Assembly, last year also the license fee was paid from the Salisbury Funds.

In the first time, this request for exemption from the payment of license fee comes before Govt:

In granting a license under section 24 of the Excise Regn, it is open to Govt: either to demand a fee therefor or remit it altogether. (Vide clause a, of section 24, Excise Regn). But in the present case, there seems to be no sufficient justification to remit the fee. The reason adduced for granting the remission is that messers Baccala & co have to bring their things all the way from Bangalore at some expense. It seems more appropriate to obtain a license from the Salisbury Funds as heretofore

(1) Has no definite fee been fixed by the rules for a Refreshment Stall.

(2) If so, please point out the provision enabling remission.

Please see the orders on the routine note below.

Answer to Query no: 1. The present case falls under sub-para (13) of rule 18 of the Foreign Liquor Rules and the Board is competent to issue such "occasional Licenses" fixing the fee therefor at his own discretion. During the Dasara of the three previous years, such occasional licenses have been issued by him without any reference to Govt.

Query no: 2. There is no where any specific provision for remitting fees on licenses.

The President of the Dasara Exhibition may be informed accordingly. Submitted with a draft.

(1) Under para 13 of rule 18, the Deputy Commr can grant an "occasional" license on payment of such fee as he thinks fit.

(2) There is no objection to the Govt directing that a license be given.
